PRESENT DEWEY WITH LOVING CUP

Mayor Van Wyke Makes the Speech.

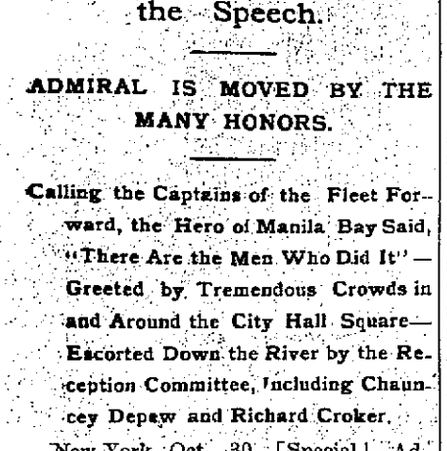

ADMIRAL IS MOVED BY THE MANY HONORS.

Calling the Captains of the Fleet Forward, the Hero of Manila Bay Said, "There Are the Men Who Did It"—Greeted by Tremendous Crowds in and Around the City Hall Square—Escorted Down the River by the Reception Committee, Including Chauncey Depew and Richard Croker.

New York, Oct. 30—[Special]—Admiral Dewey arrived at the city hall at 8:45 o'clock this morning, where the silver loving cup is to be presented to him. He was greeted by tremendous crowds along the route from the battery and by fifty thousand people who pressed in and around the city hall square.

The city hall had lost all its former semblance of itself, owing to the magnificent decorations.

Dewey had been escorted down the river from the Olympia's anchorage off Grant's tomb by the reception committee, including Chauncey Depew, Richard Croker. The police boat patrol took the party to the battery.

THE DEWEY LOVING CUP.

Dewey, clad in a splendid full dress uniform, came down the plank, smiling and bowing.

Squadron A., the crack cavalry organization, formed the guard of honor around the carriage in which the admiral entered.

At the city hall square the cheers of the thousands along the route, were overshadowed by the roaring combination of cheer, yell and howl which lasted many minutes.

The presentation took place on a stand in full view of the multitude, Mayor Van Wyck making the speech.

Dewey replied. "It is quite impossible for me to express the depth to which I am moved by all these honors, one after an other. That beautiful cup, the freedom of the city, this magnificent reception. I cannot say what I would like to, but speaking for myself and the gallant squadron, I had the honor to command at Manila. I thank you from the bottom of my heart."

The admiral then called on the fleet captains to step forward: "These are the men who did it," he said.

Looking at the cup, he exclaimed several times: "It is truly beautiful."

Dewey and the committee departed immediately after the ceremony for North river, where a steamer took them to Grant's tomb, to take part in the land parade.

Dewey's progress is a continuous ovation. He was smiling and happy, and responded to the plaudits by a wave of the hand or a bow.

SCENE OF GREAT ENTHUSIASM

Grand Marshal Roe Gives the Signal for Start of Parade

New York, Sept. 30—[Special]—It was 11:17 o'clock when Grand Marshal Roe gave the signal to march, amidst scenes of the greatest enthusiasm.

The great column swung into order and the triumphal trip to Washington Square began.

Scores of bands scattered along the line, filled the air with inspiring music.

The route of the parade was seven miles in length. It started at Riverside drive, coming through Central park to Fifth avenue, ending under the arch commemorating the inauguration of Washington as president.

It is estimated that five million people were assembled along the line. The sidewalks were fringed with elaborately decorated reviewing stands, which stretched in an unbroken line before dwellings, churches and business places.

Seats in the stands cost from two to twenty dollars and windows also brought fabulous prices.

The red, white and blue decorations often varied by the use of blue and gold, which are the admiral's colors.

When the parade reached Madison Square, Dewey and Van Wyck alighted and were escorted to a stand from which they watched the parade.

The formation of the parade was as follows:

There were 2,000 sailors and marines in line. The men of the Olympia were at the head of the column, marching directly in front of the four horse carriage containing Admiral Dewey and Mayor Van Wyck.

Sousa's band of 130 pieces, the finest marching band ever got together, furnished the music for the Olympia's tars.

In the naval division were the officers and men who destroyed Cervera's fleet off Santiago and Montejo's fleet in Manila bay.

In the two carriages immediately following the admiral's were four of Dewey's captains at Manila—Coghlan, Dyer, Wildes and Lamberton.

Every branch of the service was represented in the 2,000 troops forming the regular army division, including the West Point cadets.

Practically the entire strength of the National Guard of New York, 15,000 men, were in line, with Governor Theodore Roosevelt riding at their head, Squadron A acting as his special escort.

Fifteen other states had 10,000 men in line. The visiting troops marched in the order of the admission of their states to the union—namely: Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Georgia, Connecticut, Maryland, South Carolina, North Carolina, Ohio, Indiana, Missouri, Maine, Florida, and Texas.

Famous military organizations which have done much to give luster to the American army were in line, also the younger veterans who gave it new glory during the war with Spain.

Colonel John Jacob Astor was the richest man in the procession. He rode at the head of the Manhattan regiment of Spanish war veterans.

Route in Festival Dress.

No parade that ever marched in this city has marched over a route so magnificently decorated as were the thoroughfares through which the procession passed. The nearest approach to the festival dress of the city was during the Washington centennial celebration of ten years ago.

A temporary arch, since perpetuated, was erected for that event in Washington square, but this structure in elaborateness of detail and magnificence of adornment fell far short of the splendid creation in the shadow of which Admiral Dewey reviewed the parade at Madison square.

To perpetuate the Washington arch cost $225,000. The sculptural work alone on the Dewey triumphal arch has an estimated value of $400,000, all contributed gratis by the members of the National Sculpture society. No such monument as this was ever erected in any country for merely temporary purposes.

In six hours the troops will pass under it, and then the direct object for which it was built will be achieved.

From Thirty-fourth street to the northern colonnade of the arch at Twenty-sixth street the troops will pass through an aisle of magnificently decorated triumphal pillars, as beautiful in their way as the arch to which they lead.

Behind all the others will come 1,200 of the host who fought the battles of '61-'65, most of them union veterans, a few confederates—the former under the old one-armed warrior, Gen. O. O. Howard; the latter under Gen. Roger A. Pryor.

The Children's Greeting.

Most inspiring of all will be the scene when the admiral's carriage turns from Seventy-second street into Central park west. Banked high on a stand against the park wall will be 2,200 school children in blue and white, so arranged as to spell the word "Dewey," and when the admiral appears the little ones will sing in unison, "See, the Conquering Hero Comes."

Growing Hair by Suction.

London Cor. Philadelphia Bulletin: A Paris hairdresser undertakes to grow a good crop of hair on the baldest head by mechanical means. His apparatus consists of a flexible plate of convenient shape to fit the top of the head. This is pressed down and the air from beneath is exhausted; the cupping process thus applied is supposed to stimulate the growth of the roots.

Learned by Accident.

Queen Victoria learned in a curious way that she was to be Queen of England. Six years before her accession—when she was 12—her mother inserted in her history book a genealogical table tracing the descent of the rulers of that country from the time of William I., and on reading through this she saw her own name placed next as the occupant of the throne.

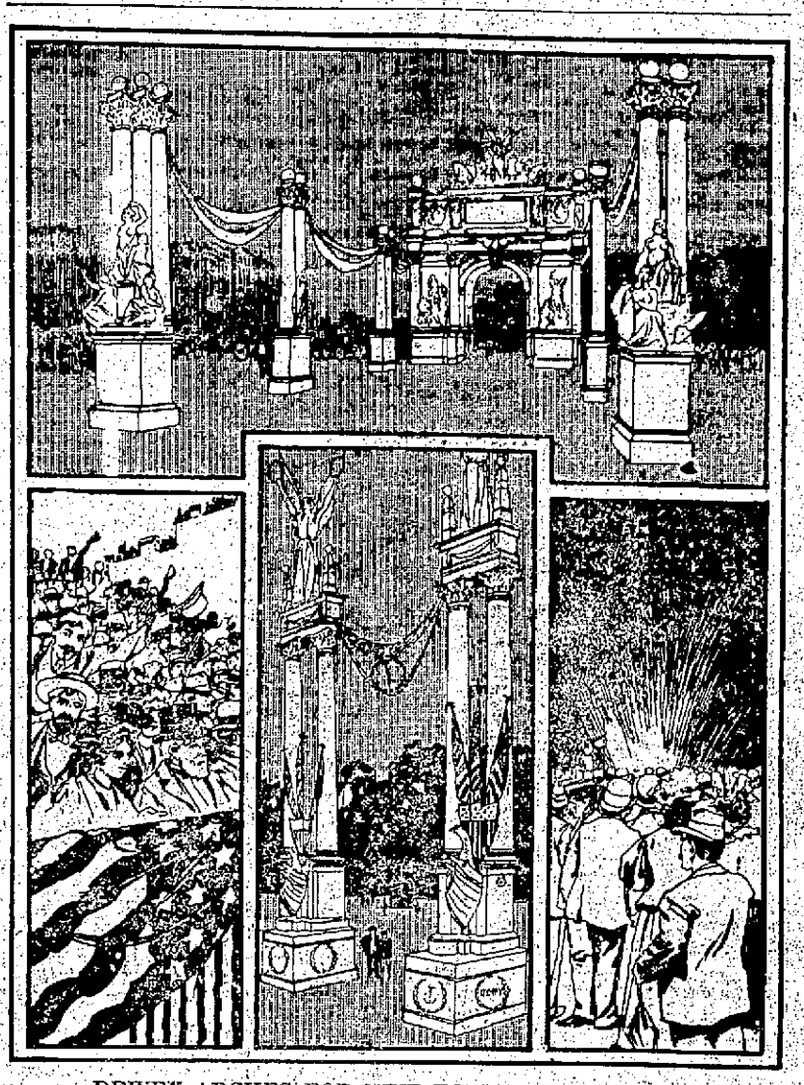

BOERS ARE ACTIVE IN PREPARATIONS

HIGH COURT AT PRETORIA CLOSED TODAY.

Martial Law is Expected Immediately—Special Trains Loaded With Troops Are Leaving for the Frontier—Ten Thousand Will be Under Arms by Sunday.

Pretoria, Sept. 30—[Special]—The high court closed today and martial law is expected immediately.

Special trains loaded with troops were leaving all last night for the frontier, and large crowds at the railroad stations cheered the soldiers' departure.

DEWEY ARCHES FOR NEW YORK AND BROOKLYN.

The Boers are mobilizing with marvelous rapidity and it is claimed that ten thousand will be under arms by Sunday.

Early Outbreak Expected.

Cape Town, Sept. 30—[Special]—There is not the slightest chance of the Boers accepting England's final proposition.

An early outbreak of hostilities is regarded certain, and the British war correspondents have left for the frontier.

London, Sept. 30.—Parliament is to be summoned by royal proclamation, and is expected to reassemble in about three weeks. The government desires a clear expression of approval by the legislature of the policy now being pursued in south Africa, as well as the necessary financial legislation.

Indications lead to the belief that in view of the cabinet decision the Boers will probably commit an overt act which will bring on hostilities before the assembling of parliament.

All the latest dispatches from the Transvaal show the liveliest activity on the part of the burghers.

WAUKESHA ELOPER IN DURANCE VILE

SPRING CITY MAN ELOPED WITH COLORED GIRL.

Sheriff Finds the Fellow Easily in Chicago—Drink and Exposure Caused Death of Carl Ristow at Rib Falls—Found Guilty of Attempted Wife Murder.

Waukesha, Wis., Sept. 30—Sheriff King captured in Chicago yesterday Charles Fuller, the 'bus driver who eloped with Bertie Reese, the colored girl. The sheriff went to Chicago on a morning train and soon after reaching there went to the postoffice and made arrangements for a signal to be given him in case certain mail was called for. Soon after he got the signal and followed a stranger for eight blocks, when he was rewarded by seeing him meet Fuller and hand him a letter on the street. While the parties were together the sheriff stood back, but when they separated he arrested Fuller.

When Fuller recovered from his surprise he said to Sheriff King, "You have done a neat job, and I suppose I will have to go with you." Being assured story as to the death of Carl Ristow at Rib Falls. It is learned now that Ristow number where Fuller and Miss Reese staid in Chicago are known.

Drink and Exposure

Wausau, Wis., Sept. 30—Investigation yesterday exploded the sensational that he would, arrangements were made to proceed directly to Waukesha. They reached here at 3 o'clock and Fuller was placed in jail. He was arraigned in the municipal court today. The street and tow returned to his home near Rib Falls last Friday night under the influence of liquor. A fight with his wife resulted, each being scratched and bruised. At its conclusion Ristow left home, going to an abandoned cabin on one of his farms. Thursday he was found dead, the appearence of the body indicating that he had died in convulsions. By his side were empty whisky flasks. The only mysterious circumstance was the absence of his shoes and hat. There is no suspicion, however, of foul play, his death being due to natural causes, induced by hard drinking and exposure.

Kuehnemann Found Guilty.

Sheboygan, Wis., Sept. 30—The jury in the case of Frank Kuehnemann, charged with assault with intent to kill, returned a verdict of guilty. On March 27 last, Kuehnemann, who had not been living with his wife for some time, entered the store of John P. Hunke, her brother in-law, and finding here there fired two shots at her from a revolver, one bullet taking effect in her shoulder. Her injuries were not serious and she soon recovered. Kuehnemann was under the influence of liquor at the time. The plea made was great provocation because of jealousy.

Arthur Goddard Is Dying.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Sept. 30—W. R. Hoyt of this city, has received a letter from his son, Romeo, who is in Juneau, Alaska, stating that Arthur Goodard, who was committed to an asylum in the British possessions the fore part of this month, was dying and there were no hopes for his recovery. It was thought that later the authorities there would permit of the young man's removal to an American asylum. His father, H. J. Goddard of this city, who has been with him for the past month, has left that country and will return home.

George W. Smith Dead.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 30—George W. Smith, the capitol employe who fell from the gallery of the assembly chamber Tuesday and fractured his skull, died yesterday morning. Mr. Smith came into the capitol with the Upham administration, and has had charge of the assembly chamber since that time. He was 57 years old and leaves his wife, a son and two daughters. He was a civil war veteran.

Gipple in Galesville, charged with hunting without a non-residence hunter's license. He was fined $50 and costs, which he paid. The prosecution was by Deputy Fish and Game Warden Carl Palmer of this city.

MURDERED A POLICE

John Kassow of Milwaukee, Killed By Unknown Parties Today—Largest Officer on Force.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 30—[Special]—John Kassow, the biggest policeman on the Milwaukee police force, was murdered by unknown parties in Silver City, a suburb to the South Side, this morning.

Kassow was struck on the head with a club. He was thirty years old and six feet ten inches tall.

FORECAST OF WEATHER

Chicago, Sept. 30—[Special]—Forecast for Wisconsin:

Fair, increasing temperature tonight and Sunday.

Horse Hair for Violin Bows.

The horse hair used in making violin and other bows is imported from Russia, both the white and black being used. The black is the heavier and stronger and is used for making the bows of bass viols, because it bites the strings better. The standard violin bow is twenty-nine inches in length. Longer bows are made to order, and shorter ones are used by very young persons, but the bow commonly seen in the hands of a violin player is twenty-nine inches long.

New Resetting Revolver.

An Austrian gunmaker who has devoted great attention to revolvers and repeating rifles has patented a new form of revolver. In the present type of weapon the gas generated in the discharge is made use of for reloading and resetting the revolver, but in the new one these functions are performed by mechanism. Climatic conditions affect the gases and render the weapon less effective; this state of things is avoided by the new patent.

New Irons.

New flatirons should be allowed to stand on the stove some time before using in order to get off the coating of black. When they are rusted they may be cleaned with fine scouring soap, and when stored away for any length of time kerosene or vaseline should be put over them.

Gen. Garcia Anxious to Surrender.

OTIS INFORMS WAR DEPARTMENT AT WASHINGTON.

Filipino Officer Expresses a Desire to Turn the Country Over to the United States Authorities and Give Up All the Insurgent Arms—Released Prisoners Arrived at Angels This Morning Accompanied by a Commander in Rebel Army—Gilmore and Others Are Terribly Emaciated as a Result of Confinement.

Washington, Sept. 30—[Special]—The war department today made public the following dispatch from Gen. Otis: "A communication has been received from Gen. Garcia, commanding all the insurgent's troops in Eastern Mindanao, expresses a desire to turn the country over to United States authorities and surrender all the insurgent arms."

American Prisoners Released.

Manila, Sept. 30 [Special]—The fourteen Americans who have long been imprisoned by the insurgents, arrived at Angels this morning, accompanied by General Alejandrino of the rebel army. Generals Otis and Schwan were at Angels to meet Alejandrino.

Lieutenant Gilmore and the others are terribly emaciated as a result of their imprisonment.

Nine Americans were wounded in Thursday's fighting, two probably fatally. It is estimated that fifty insurgents were killed or wounded.

Two reconnoitering parties came into collision with the insurgents near Imus and four Americans were wounded.

More Soldiers for Otis.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 30—Three transports sailed today for Manila. They are the Charles Nelson, Glenogle and Sheridan. In all over 2,500 men are on their way to re-enforce Gen. Otis.

REFUSED A NEW TRIAL

President Approves of the Findings in the Captain Carter Embezzling Case.

New York, Sept. 30—[Special]—Captain Oberlin Carter, convicted of embezzling government funds, was arrested this morning, presumably on orders from the war department. His arrest seems to indicate that Attorney General Griggs has decided against the appeal for a new courtmartial.

Washington, Sept. 30—[Special]—President McKinley has approved of the findings in the Captain Carter case. Ft. Leavenworth has been designated as the place of imprisonmet.

Calvin's House in Geneva.

An imposing demonstration in honor of Calvin has just been held in the city of Geneva, which he raised to the proud position of "the Rome of Protestantism." A memorial tablet was affixed to the house which now occupies the site of Calvin's house, in the Rue Calvin, with the inscription: "John Calvin lived here, 1543-1564." Unfortunately for the precise truth of the inscription, the modest dwelling the great reformer really inhabited was pulled down in 1706, so that the memorial had to be placed upon another house occupying the same site. M. Vigier, who delivered the oration at the public unveiling of the tablet, made a touching allusion to this fact. Wildhaus, the little commune of the Toggensburg, where Zwingi, the reformer of German Switzerland, was born, has reverently preserved intact its far more ancient "Zwinglihutte."

Pioneer Greek Letter Society.

The first Greek letter society—Phi Beta Kappa—was originated at William and Mary in 1776, and among the charter members were John Marshall, chief justice, and Bushrod Washington, associate justice of the supreme court; Spencer Roane, who was considered the ablest jurist ever produced in Virginia; John Brown and Stephen T. Mason, senators from Virginia, and William Short, minister to Spain and Holland.

Broke Her Contract.

From Puck: Mrs. Slimdiet (the landlady)—Mr. Upton, you must either pay up or leave! I have kept my contract with you, and you must keep your contract with me! Hardy Upton—But you haven't kept your contract with me! You guaranteed to make me comfortable! Mrs. Slimdiet—Well, haven't I made you comfortable? Hardy Upton—No! Your constant naggin me to settle my board bills for the last three months has made my life in this house exceedingly uncomfortable!

REV. W. W. WOODSIDE'S NAME IS MENTIONED

FOR PRESIDING ELDER OF THE JANESVILLE DISTRICT.

Suggested at Yesterday's Session of Waukesha Conference—Sabin Halsey, a Former Pastor, is Also Spoken of—Dispatch of Welcome Sent to Admiral Dewey.

The name of W. W. Woodside, pastor of the First M. E. church in this city, has been suggested in connection with the presiding eldership of the Janesville district at the M. E. conference. A number of friends are making an active canvass in his behalf. The name of Sabin Halsey, a former Janesville pastor, is also mentioned quite favorably.

The bishop and his cabinet are working industriously on the conference appointments, and it is said the list is nearly complete. Bishop Hurst informed the clergymen of the Janesville district that if they would suggest four names for presiding elder he would consider them. They have suggested W. W. Woodside of this city; A. W. Stephens, Milton Junction; Enoch Perry, Whitewater; and Sabin Halsey, Sharon.

The prospect of a particularly interesting session drew an audience that filled the church yesterday morning. The discussion over the Committee on General Conference Legislation and the election of four delegates to the General conference was the attraction. Among the clergymen; the fine weather and a good breakfast had added a christian feeling of toleration for whatever trouble might arise. When the report came up it was seen that some of the anticipated changes in the discipline were not mentioned. Yet the suggestions were radical,

Discussions Not Exciting

The discussion was rather lifeless, in spite of the daring principles that some of them voiced, and four of them were adopted by a large majority in the showing of hands. The disposal of the first four clauses occupied half an hour. The report, as presented, is as follows:

That we favor our delegates to the next general conference voting for the seating of provisional delegates.

That we memorialize the general conference:

First—To elect the bishops for a term of four or eight years and that they shall be assigned to the same field of labor for a term of four successive years.

Second—To provide for the election of presiding elders by the annual conference.

Third—To remove the time limit of the pastorate.

Fourth—To reduce the number of Advocates (church papers) or provide some plan by which they may be made to pay; and furthermore we are opposed to subsidizing any paper, excepting The Southwestern Christian Advocate, to the detriment of the conference claimant fund.

Fifth—That the stewards and trustees be elected by the members of the churches.

Struggle Over Bishop's Prerogative.

The battle royal was waged around the clause favoring general conference legislation that would make presiding elderships officers to be elected by annual conferences. Ever since the Methodist Episcopal church was organized, presiding elders have been appointed by bishops. To cut down a bishop's term of office to four or eight years was going pretty far, but not so far as curtailing his powers of appointment.

Presiding Elder D. C. John made the ablest speech of the day. "Conference has as much right to station the preachers as the presiding elder," he said. "It would be unconstitutional in either case. If we are to be inconsistent in this matter, the bishop must appoint presiding elders and preachers or else neither. You can't make the change unless you revolutionize the policy of the church and strike at the foundation of the itineracy. I know it is pretty difficult to get some presiding elders out before their six years it up. They know enough to hold on to a good thing when they get it. But this is only a digression. I am opposed to having this conference go to the General conference advocating a resolution that strikes at the root of the Episcopacy."

Dr. Peake Defines Methodism.

The Rev. T. D. W. Peake said: "I think that if we have been elected to be an Episcopal church, we must be so, not try to change to a Congregational church. I am not a candidate for a presiding eldership, but I am loyal to Methodism. As to this report of the committee, I object to the whole affair and shall fight it all the way through. We have been well treated by the bishops. The election of presiding elders in conferences can never be as long as it is in the Methodist church."

The conference sent a dispatch of welcome to Admiral Dewey, in the name of the Methodists of the whole state.

JOHN KELLY'S GREAT HORSE

Janesville Driver's Charge Has Earned Between $12,000 and $13,000.

John Kelly's next "big race" will be contested at Louisville, Kentucky, when he will drive Charlie Herr in competition with all the harness cracks of the country for a $10,000 purse. Charley Herr has probably won more money this season, than any other horse on the turf, his earnings, up to the present time being between $12,000 and $13,000. David Cahill, the Lexington, Ky., milkman, who raised and owns him, got the youngster into high society by entering him through the grand circuit. All through the campaign the four-year-old had to start against such turf stars as Serpol, 2:10; Bingen, 2:06¼; Lecco, 2:09¾, Cresceus, 2:07¾; and Fred Kohl, 2:07¾. He forced all of them to put in their best licks to beat him, but beat him they did in nearly every race. Out of eight starts he was once first, five times second, once third and once fourth. His one winning performance took place at Boston in the $10,000 Massachusetts purse. There he defeated Lecco, Fred Kohl, Serpol, Royal Baron and a dozen other fast ones, trotting one of the most consistant and remarkable races on record. Seven heats were required to decide it, and in every heat Charley Herr was either first or second at the finish. Six days after this performance Charley Herr met Peter the Great at Hartford, beat him the first heat in 2:10, and forced him to trot the next three in 2:08¾, 2:09½ and 2:09½ to win the race. He also forced Lord Vincent out in 2:08¾ at Glens Falls. From Hartford he came to New York, and after a four days' rest, trotted second to Cresceus in 2:07¾. The winner of the Massachusetts purse is a small, plain-looking, old-fashioned, steady-going bay colt. He is always on a trot, does not pull a pound, and carries no artificial appliances worth mentioning. He is by Alfred G., 2:19¾, a son of Anteeo, 2:16½, by Electioneer. His dam is Bessie Huntington by the old time trotter Happy Traveler, 2:27½.

THE PRIEST'S WILL INVALID

Judge Grimm Declares That Two Clauses Are Void

Judge Grimm of the Jefferson county Probate court, has declared two clauses of the will of the Rev. Father John Friedel invalid. The first clause to which exception is taken is the following:

"One thousand dollars for holy masses to be said for me and my benefactors, and for those to whom during my life I have been a stone of offense."

This clause is declared void for the reason that there are no beneficiaries of the trust who may come in to equity to enforce its performance. Had the bequest been direct to an individual bishop or priest for the reading of masses, says the court, the bequest would have been valid.

The other clause is that of giving for a home for aged priests: The will says: "The rest shall be paid to the Most Rev. Archbishop of Milwaukee, for the erection of a home near Jefferson, in which priests who have become incapable for the ministry can spend their last days; but they must provide for themselves, i. e. room in said house self-dependently. This money must not fall to a sister's convent."

Judge Grimm holds this clause void under the common law and under the statutes of this state. The devise in question, he says, is not limited and therefore attempts to grant an estate in perpetuity, and an estate in perpetuity can only be granted to a "literary or charitable corporation organized under the laws of the state." The court gives the further reason for declaring this clause invalid that the trust is not "fully expressed nor clearly defined upon the face of the instrument creating it," in several respects.

LULL IN ACTIVITY BUYING NEW LEAF

LITTLE COMPLAINT HEARD OF NEW TOBACCO CROP.

Samples From Early Harvested Fields Show a Surprisingly Fine Yield—Sampling Now Going on in Nearly All Warehouses—Good Prices Are Being Paid.

The movement in the buying of the new crop is gradually dwindling away with indications that the first flurry is about over. The effort now seems to be confined to the selection of a few of the very early large growth crops for which very good prices are paid. Two sales were made at Evansville at 9 cents or better. Nowhere now is there general riding being done.

The Edgerton Reporter reports the following sales: John Bolstad, 13 a at 8 cents straight; Joe Shively, 5a at 9 cents straight; Henry Searles, 5a at 9¼ cents straight; G. J. Hamre, 8a at 8 cents straight; W. D. Hempell, 6a at 7¾ cents. Old leaf has been hunted some in the growing districts during the week and William Isaacs sold 27 cases of '97 at 10 cents, and B. Hartwick 56 cases '98 at p. t. Packers are disposing of moderate sized lots, the most important being the sale of 725 cases of '98 to C. L. Culton.

Sampling is now going on in nearly all the warehouses, and there seems to be little complaint as to the character of the '98 crop after passing through the curing process.

Samples of the partially cured new crop are also being shown coming from the early harvested fields, that show surprisingly fine tobacco, very much after the style of the 98 thin, light colored but sounder leaf.

The shipments out of storage reach twelve carloads, 600 cases, from Edgerton to all points for the week. Since last report 665 cases of cigar leaf were exported from New York.

"UNCLE TOM" AND BOO, HOO

Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's Play Greeted by Large Audience.

Stetson's "Uncle Tom's Cabin company drew two good sized audiences at Myers' Grand opera house yesterday, in matinee and evening performance, and a "great wrong was righted" in the usual stereotyped manner. The efforts of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe are being unmercifully abused and are becoming too everlastingly up-to-date to suit the average theatre goer. The singing by the "original troupe of South Carolina jubilee singers", was very good, and was an appreciative feature of the evening's performance. The dancing and specialties were equally good, and the scenery was grand. The company in keeping with the spirit of progress, had their two Topsys and two Marks and even the Siberian man eating blood hounds were in keeping with the progressive strides and proudly "did their turn" to the call of Dewey and Sampson. Tears, some as large as oyster cans, were discernible last evening and the tender-hearted were quite conspicuous and "loud" in their appreciation of the play which has no unusual heart-breaking features. The play always proves a strong drawing card and pleases the average audience.

"Two Married Men" Tonight

George R. Edeson's new farce comedy, "Two Married Men," will be the attraction at Myers Grand this evening. In the company are S. S. Simpson, Ray Southard, Donald J. Clark, Jack Elliott, Joe Harkins, Alex Henry, Walter Messenger, Lila Linden, Kittie Ridgeway, Healy sisters, Anna Houck, Janet Cleveland, May Towne, Edith Lysle and Hattie Westcourt.

In making up his company for this season, Mr. Edeson has selected a company of players peculiarly adapted to farce comedy; sweet singers, clever dancers, and withal a company of comedians seldom equalled in a traveling company.

A PLEASANT SOCIAL DANCE

Given Last Evening by the Neversleep Club.

The first of a series of social dances to be given during the winter, was given by the members of the Neversleep club last night at Columbia hall. The affair was a most pleasant one and the fifty couples present tripped the light fantastic till—well, it was announced that it would be an all night dance. They kept their promise. Smith's orchestra of four pieces furnished the inspiration, which was excellent, as usual.

EXENTS FOR THE EVENING

"Two Married Men" at Myers Grand Opera house. The management guarantees the performance.

THE United Commercial Travelers will give the first social of the season at East Side Odd Fellows' hall. A picnic supper will be served at 6:30 to be followed by an entertainment in the large hall, concluding with a dance.

THE RISE OF LIPTON

Evolution of the Shamrock's Owner From Farmhand to Merchant Prince.

BY C. T. BAXTER.

Sir Thomas Lipton, who is over here with the amiable intention of carrying back to England the America's cup, is a man who began life as a farm laborer and has become a merchant prince. Naturally his life story is a romance of facts. The evolution of a poor boy into a multimillionaire is a fascinating thing to contemplate, even in the prosiest of biographies.

When Sir Thomas recently arrived in New York on one of the palacelike liners, attended by a troop of servants and accompanied by a cartload of luggage, he made a very different entrance from that of his first landing at that port.

On that initial occasion he was kicked down the gangplank by an irate second mate. The mate was angry because the 17-year-old boy was a stowaway and had stolen his passage from Charleston up the coast.

There are many other vivid contrasts between the circumstances of the Sir Thomas Lipton of today and the half starved Irish lad of 30 years ago. Born of Scotch-Irish parents in Glasgow, who were poor as poverty, he struggled up to boyhood somehow.

At last his heap of hoarded pennies had grown to be enough to pay for a steerage passage to America, and he ran away. He was a boy of 15 years then and small for his age, but there was that within him that kept him going when grown men would have given up in despair.

He landed in Charleston. He got a job as a harvest hand on a rice plantation, and for two years he was a farm laborer, fighting with the newly freed negroes for a chance at the hardest work in the world.

But as he worked in the fields it dawned on the lad that not here, where the whole population was hunting riches, but in the old grooved life of his native city, lay his best chance of wealth. He would apply American methods to business in Glasgow and see if in the combination there was not something for Tom Lipton.

He walked to Charleston and begged a steamer captain to let him work his way to New York. He met with a blunt refusal. Consequently when the steamboat sailed she carried Tom Lipton hidden amid the merchandise in her hold.

Again Lipton found himself in New York, this time with a purpose and a plan in his mind. He washed himself of his grime in a park fountain, earned a breakfast and began his search for work.

The strong young boy, his thews steeled by the hard training in the ricefields, found little difficulty in getting work. Of course he thrived. He did not know any luxury and but little rest, but he put by money. Before the year was out he had saved enough for a steerage passage and was back in Glasgow.

Presently the staid Scottish city was astonished to see two monster hogs, groomed until their bristles glistened, decked with ribbons and led through the streets behind a banner labeled "Lipton's Orphans."

A crowd gathered and followed the huge swine to a little shop with the name of Lipton above the door. The young fellow was proprietor, clerk, salesman, bookkeeper and porter all in one. He lunched in the shop and dined not at all at first.

The venture succeeded. He got a clerk, and presently in another quarter of the city there was another Lipton shop, an exact duplicate of the first.

Today there are 420 Lipton shops scattered through Great Britain, 60 of them being in London. They are all alike, all gayly colored and illuminated, so that they stand out like lighthouses on a dark night.

Lipton's tea comes from his own plantations in Ceylon, but a score of other food products also bear his label and swell his fortune. In the United States he owns a butchering plant that kills 3,000 hogs daily, and he has 600 refrigerator cars to carry the meat to the markets.

His fortune is estimated at $50,000,000, and he is not 50 years old.

For his charities he was knighted a year ago, and it is Sir Thomas Lipton who has come over here to sail his yacht, the Shamrock, to race for the America's cup—Sir Thomas Lipton, who shoveled coal to pay for his stolen passage on the Charleston steamer.

AN ENTERTAINING PROGRAM

Epworth League of First M. E. Church Give a Social

An evening of rare pleasure was enjoyed at the parlors of the First M. E. church last night, the occasion being a social by the Epworth League. The literary program was presided over by Mrs. Herbert Griffin. Misses Myrtle Pantell, Elsie Cummings and Gladys Rutter rendered pleasing recitations, which were followed by a vocal duet by Misses Pearl Hall and Mabel Woodman, and a vocal solo by Archie Crawford. E. E. Van Pool sang his harmonica solo, "Home, Sweet Home," and received a hearty encore. He responded with "Yankee Doodle." Much merriment was occasioned by the announcement of a paper, "Mr. Nobody from Nowhere," whose make-up was that of an Irishman and proved to be Edward Kay, the president of the society. His readings were of a humorous nature and contained several hits that were very clever.

After the rendition of the program, refreshments were served, an article on the menu being printers' pi. A social hour followed the supper.

A FEAST FOR BODY AND MIND

Anniversary of Woman's Missionary Society of Presbyterian Church.

The regular September meeting of the Woman's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church, was held last evening. The affair was in the nature of a celebration of the fourteenth anniversary of the society. A most palatable supper was served, followed by a program, the subject being, "Available Fuel for Missionary Fires." Mrs. E. H. Pence and Miss Fannie Jackson were the readers and their efforts were greatly appreciated, being highly entertaining. It has been decided that one of the features for the coming year will be a serial story. One chapter will be read at each meeting.

Men Who Wear Bracelets.

Bracelet-wearing men are said to be on the increase. The prince of Wales wears a gold bracelet at times on his left wrist—a bangle, by the way, which belonged to Maximilian, the ill-fated emperor of Mexico. The prince's brother, the duke of Saxe-Coburg, also wears a bracelet on his left wrist and a chain around his neck. The late duke of Albany, although never considered of a superstitious disposition, always believed a certain good luck attached to the bangle which he wore. The late Archduke Rudolph wore a massive bracelet and chain, and King Humbert also displays a bracelet.—M. A. P.

When he was a young man, and but few people knew the features of the monarch, he thought it a treat to elbow his way through crowds, but now he always avoids even the smallest assembly of persons.

THE WAR AGAINST PROSPERITY.

The New York Sun—While all the democratic gongs and tomtoms are resounding against the trusts, persons who continue to wear their heads will not forget what is the real motive of the hubbub. How often in 1896 did Mr. Bryan denounce the money trust? How often since has he called that creature of his fancy the greatest of trusts?

In declaring against trusts and corporations he and his associates are simply following the democratic policy, the Chicago platform. The money power, capital, business that yields profitable returns, are the enemies against which the fierce, envious, destructive, ignorant radicalism which is now the democratic party has fought since 1896. Whatever is accepted by and established in the world of business must be thrown down as oppressive to "the poor," the "producing classes," by the Bryanite ranters. Whether the gold standards or trusts and corporations are attacked, the motive of the attack is the same. The Bryanite process is to inflame discontent, to set the unprosperous against the prosperous, to instill into the minds of multitudes the belief that they are "wronged" by the "rich."

The Democratic anti-trust movement is a brother or first cousin of Sixteen to One, and its neck will be wrung like the other.

Henry Clews, the New York financier, in his weekly press letter, says: "The July earnings of 121 roads surpass all records. The gross receipts show an increase over last year of $12,415,000, or 18.76 per cent, while in the net there is a gain of $5,245,000, or at the rate of 25.87 per cent. There is no restraining the effect of such figures, alike on investment and speculation. It seems reasonable to anticipate that such conditions and prospects may produce eager buying so soon as the market is free from the present monetary and political restraints."

The two most famous fighting men in the world met on the Olympia when Champion Jeffris called on Admiral Dewey. One, however, fought to gratify the animal instinct in man, so perhaps the reporter put it well when he said "and after the greeting the gentleman and the brute separated."

Amos L. Allen, formerly private secretary to Speaker Reed, has been nominated by the republicans of Reed's district to succeed the former speaker, in congress. Mr. Allen is a strong administration man, and supports the president's policy with enthusiasm.

John H. Baker, of Madison, has been commissioned as captain in the volunteer army. The appointment was secured by Senators Spooner and Quarles, although it had been announced that Wisconsin's quota was full.

Farragut's flag has been presented to Admiral Dewey. The action was appropriate, as Dewey was with Farragut in his memorable battle and has proved himself a worthy successor of his great teacher.

Admiral Dewey greeted Governor Theodore Roosevelt with unusual warmth, making the remark, "You, more than any man in the United States, are responsible for making me admiral."

The Kenosha white man who eloped with a colored woman is now running a close race for notoriety with the Ohio man who eloped with his aunt.

The "Dewey Home Fund" now amounts to $50,000, and the admiral has announced that he will accept the gift.

Georgia railways cannot get cars enough to handle the freight offered for shipment. The "new South", verily.

BOERS' CALL TO ARMS.

How Kruger's Burghers Are Summoned to Defend the Republic.

The Boer method of calling the burghers to arms is a strikingly primitive one, but effective none the less. In each district there is an officer known as the field cornet. When it becomes necessary to call upon the burghers for armed service, he mounts his horse and rides hard and fast from kraal to kraal, serving the formal notices.

This call the burghers obey at once. There can be no excuse save that of serious illness. Mounted and fortified against hunger for ten days by a supply of buck or beef, cured in the sun, and called "biltong," the burghers concentrate in the specified "dorp," or village, where they invariably meet in the market place, the church, iron gated, iron steepled, in the background. Arms are distributed to those who are without them, and, as for forage, the veldt is trusted to supply it at need.

CALLING BOERS TO ARMS.

The commandant, who is the Dutch equivalent of the English colonel, drills his forces as best he may, and a certain amount of military discipline is easily acquired, despite the rather slouching appearance, due in part to the absence of uniforms, except in the case of the commandants, the other officers and the "state artillery."

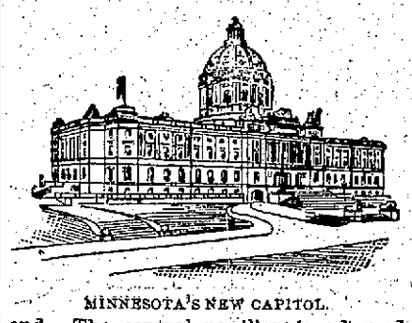

The call of a commandant is not now binding on an outlander, as the Boer authorities at one time designed that it should be, but when the outlander takes the oath and the franchise, as now proposed, his immunity will cease.

A FINE WHITE CAPITOL.

Minnesota Is Building One of Georgia Marble.

Minnesota's new capitol building, now in course of construction at St. Paul, is to be a most beautiful edifice. With the exception of the granite foundations the entire building is to be of pure white Georgia marble. This marble is almost pure carbonate of lime, of a brilliant crystalline texture, marked by blue veins for the most part vigorous. Here and there appears a delicate cloud of gray, making the general aspect of the rock exceedingly rich and beautiful. Professor Blunchli of Zurich, who visited the capitol recently, declared that this Georgia marble possessed a beauty unsurpassed by any similar product of the quarries of Italy.

The principal facade of the capitol looks toward the south. This front is 435 feet long, exclusive of the approaches, the entrance and the steps. The only interruptions in this noble line of marble are the main central pavilion and the pavilions at either end. The central pavilion is adorned with a magnificent colonnade forming the front of a deep loggia. The upper part of the colonnade is adorned with sculpture, the central feature of which is a quadriga typifying the progress of the state. The quadriga is placed at the top of the pavilion and forms its crowning feature. Supporting the quadriga on either side are placed symbolical groups, and on the broad attic below the quadriga is a series of six figures symbolizing the attributes of humanity which make for the progress of the state.

MINNESOTA'S NEW CAPITOL.

The sculpture at either end of the building will be typical of the uses of the portion of the building upon which they are placed. All figures above the roof line are of bronze. Those projected against the building are to be of white marble, in unison with the body of the building.

One of Woman's Fads.

Flat looking, like shopping, fills up much of the time of the woman who has little to do and who lives in an apartment house. She seldom intends really to make a change into the houses that she visits on her flat hunting trips. But there is something fascinating to her in the newest and most improved houses, and she visits them all. It's just a manifestation of curiosity, but the woman who becomes confirmed in the habit enjoys herself thoroughly that way. She is serious all the time she is looking and free in her criticisms.—New York Sun.

RISING BREAST

And other painful and serious ailments which so many mothers suffer, can be avoided by the use of "MOTHER'S FRIEND." This remedy is a God-send to women, because it carries them through their most critical ordeal with perfect safety and no pain. No woman who uses "MOTHER'S FRIEND" need fear the suffering and danger of child-birth—for it robs this ordeal of its horror and insures safety to mother and child. Our book, "Before Baby is Born," is worth its weight in gold to every woman, and will be sent free in plain envelope by Bradfield Regulator Company, Atlanta, Ga.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

Why He Was Like the Prince.

"Now," said the schoolmaster, as he displayed a bright 5-shilling piece between the tips of his fingers and thumb, "the first boy or girl that puts a riddle to me which I cannot answer will receive this as a gift."

"Any more?" he asked, as soon as silence was restored and no one had claimed the coin.

"Yes, sir," sang out a little fellow from the farther end of the school. "Why am I like Albert Edward, the Prince of Wales?"

"The Prince of Wales?" said the master thoughtfully. "The Prince of Wales?" he repeated to himself. "Really, Johnny, I see no resemblance in you. I'll give it up."

"Because," cried the lad joyfully, "I'm waiting for the crown."

Columbus claimed the world was round

Did people believe it? Not until he proved it.

Unproven claims have made the people skeptics.

Mrs N. J. Casey, of 100 Prairie Ave., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills proved better than any other medicines I took for my kidneys. These organs troubled me off and on for some years. Backache was the chief symptom and often caused me to suffer severely. I tried a number of remedies but continued to grow worse instead of better. I was finally persuaded to try Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at the Peoples' Drug Co's. store. I only took them a few days when I felt better. Should there be any recurrence of my trouble I now know what to use."

PRICE OF FOOTWEAR GREATLY ADVANCED

LOCAL DEALERS HAVE BEEN NOTIFIED OF THE FACT.

F. M. Marzluff & Company, the Janesville Manufacturers, Only Raise on Two Grades—Firm is Turning Out 1,700 Pairs of Shoes a Week—Spring Samples Ready.

And now it is the price of footwear that is to be advanced, along with most all other necessities of life, and several local shoe dealers have been notified of the coming raise. The manufacturers are not to blame either, for everything that goes toward the make-up of a shoe has been advanced from fifteen to sixty per cent. in price. Sole leather has advanced five cents per pound this season, making a difference in cost on a pair of shoes of several cents. Kid manufacturers have advanced their product four sents a foot, and three feet being required for a pair of shoes, it will be seen that the immediate cost of this stock has increased twelve cents for a pair of shoes. Nails have more than doubled in price and there has been an enormous advance in the price of eyelets.

F. M. Marzluff & Co., when seen in regard to the matter, said that they had so far been obliged to advance their prices on but two grades in their line and had notified their customers of the raise. Marzluff & Co. have lately finished making their spring samples, and it is safe to say that there is not a more nobby or better line made in the country than is turned out by the local factory. The line is composed of one hundred and six samples and contains all of the latest effects known to the shoemakers art. The firm is turning out about seventeen hundred pairs of shoes a week, turns and welts only, and estimate that the business done this year will be an increase of about $25,000 over that of 1898.

The salesmen have all started out with samples for the spring trade and have been assigned territory as follows:

F. M. Marzluf, St. Louis, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Dayton and eastern states.

H. C. Fish, Ohio, Michigan, Indiana and Kentucky.

H. M. Myers, California, Oregon, Montana, Washington and Colorado.

P. J. Rice, northern Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa and the Dakotas.

L. C. Palmer, Illinois and southern Wisconsin.

F. S. Oliver, Chicago and Cook county.

SPEAK WELL OF THE PLAY

Des Moines Paper Says The "Two Married Men" Are Good.

The "Two Married Men," who will be seen at the Myers' Grand tonight must be good, for the DesMoines Leader says of the play:

At the Grand, notwithstanding the counter attraction of the new Auditorium, every available bit of room was occupied, which goes to prove that DesMoines is a "pretty big town." It was one of the largest audiences ever crowded into the house. The play was a nondescript farce entitled "Two Married Men." It was well staged and if laughter is an index of a successful farce "Two Married Men" certainly accomplished all that could be desired. Of the cast, mention may be made of Roy Southard, who portrayed in excellent manner a negro character. The Healy sisters earned much applause with their dancing.

TO THE UNKNOWN BEYOND.

Conrad Schumacher.

The remains of the late Conrad Schumacher, who passed away at Rockford, Ill., last Tuesday, arrived in the city at 9:15 yesterday morning over the St. Paul road. The funeral party went directly to Oak Hill cemetery, where services were conducted by Rev. C. J. Koerner, pastor of St. Paul's German Lutheran church. An opportunity was afforded those who desired to take a farewell look at the remains. Mr. Schumacher was a former resident of this city. The pall bearers were: C. H. Kueck, John Eagan, Arthur Murray and Frank Palmer.

The Unpicturesque Conductor.

An American lady declares that London is incomparably the most beautiful of all the cities of the earth; but there is, she says, a blemish on the fair polish of our municipal aestheticism. This flaw in our beauty is the bus conductor. He is not picturesque. Allowed free rein in the choice of his clothes, he stands on the steps in a battered straw hat, a seedy tail coat and draggled trousers—a miserable figure in the general scheme of grace and beauty. The owners of omnibuses would certainly be conferring a service on the public if they demanded a little more neatness in their servants. In the meantime, the driver of the growler may congratulate himself that he has escaped the eagle eye of our American visitor.

In England there has appeared a new kind of dog, which is too highbred and too rare to become common. It is called the "butterfly" or "papillion," and weighs less than three pounds.

STUFFED PEPPERS.—Take eight or more medium sized green peppers, immerse for half a minute in scorching hot fat and rub them with a towel to remove the peel. Cut round the stem and remove both it and the seeds, fill them with a tomato stuffing, put in a baking pan, baste with oil and cook in a moderate oven for half an hour. Dish up, pour a tomato or demiglaze sauce around them and serve.

TOMATO STUFFING.—Put in a saucepan two ounces of butter, two tablespoonfuls of sweet oil, two chopped onions and a pint of chopped mushrooms. Stir, and fry about 10 minutes to evaporate the moisture, season with salt and a pinch of red pepper and nutmeg, add a ladleful each of espagnole and tomato sauce, boil a little, then put in three handfuls of fresh bread crumbs, four egg yolks and a tablespoonful of chopped parsley; mix well and stir and cook three minutes longer. Fill the peppers with this preparation.

JOHN M'CARTHY SHOT

Bullet Fired By Wm. Pankhurst—Now Held Until Injuries Are Known.

Just as the paper was going to press word was received that John McCarthy had been shot by William Pankhurst, who resides on South Pleasant street. McCarthy lives near the Grant school and is said to be badly wounded, the bullet having entered his mouth. He was removed to his home.

Pankhurst was arrested by Chief Hogan, and is in jail. He claims that he and McCarthy were shooting at a mark near the Barron quarry, with rifles, and that he pointed his weapon at McCarthy in fun, and supposing it to be unloaded, pulled the trigger. The rifle Pankhurst used was a 32-calibre.

Urchin Models.

In some sections of the wholesale clothing trade in this market it frequently happens that the shop doorways are crowded with boys of the street, newsboys, bootblacks, etc., waiting for an engagement as models. Coal Mining in China.

In point of abundance coal takes the first place among the mineral products of China. The coal fields of the country are estimated to equal in extent all the coal fields of the world put together, but the output has as yet been trifling. This is partly due to the fact that the richest regions are difficult of access and that the Chinese miner cannot cope with water in the pits. The mining is therefore carried on by means of horizontal adits or shallow pits. The tableland of Shansyl yields the best coal, other great fields being in Suchwan and Kweichou.

Model and ornamentation beautiful.

The Greater Point

of superiority, however, lies in the fact that as much space can be heated during an entire winter with two and a half tons of coal in a "Favorite" as with four tons in other stoves. This is largely on account of the flue construction having greater radiating surface—an advantage over all other stoves.

When Doctors Disagree, Who Shall Decide?

Herbert M. Fish, a progressive and respected resident of Cape Vincent, N. Y., said: "The doctors disagreed in my case, one said I had the grip, another that it was jaundice, and so on. I tried many remedies but did not receive the slightest benefit. I was low spirited and nervous and had become reduced in weight from 155 pounds to less than 123. One day a friend recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I tried them and the result was indeed marvelous. My appetite returned and I began to feel rested and restored. At the end of the tenth box my physical condition was better than it had been for years and I was a well man.

HERBERT M. FISH."

THIRTEEN LIVES WERE LOST.

Terrible Stories Told of the Wreck of the Steamer Scotsman.

Rimouski, Que., Sept. 30.—The story of the wreck of the Scotsman, which went on the rocks off Change island, in the straits of Belle isle, early in the morning of Sept. 21, as told by passengers brought here on the steamer Montford, involves the plunder and maltreatment of helpless and panic-stricken women by a drunken crew, and the drowning of thirteen people, if not more, while disembarking from the steamer in a boat from which the plug was missing, and which sank almost immediately on being lowered.

The known dead are: Mrs. Childs, wife of the stage manager of "The Sign of the Cross Company;" Mrs. Dickinson, Windsor, Ont., wife of a former editor of the Toronto Globe; Mrs. Roberts, Montreal; —— Roberts, infant child of Mrs. Roberts; Mrs. Robinson, wife of the manager of the Sun Life company, Montreal; Miss Robinson, daughter of Mrs. Robinson; Mrs. M. M. Scott, Montreal; Mrs. Skelton, Montreal; Miss Street, Montreal; Mrs. Talbot, Montreal; Mrs. Tuthill, Mrs. Elisa Watkins, Miss B. Weavers.

Of the surviving passengers of the Scotsman 249 were brought here by the Montfort. Nine more, with forty-five of the crew, were taken off by the Monterey and delivered to the Grecian, which is bringing them here also. The remaining fifty-six are on the Monterey, on the way to Liverpool.

GREAT GROWTH OF BUSINESS.

Dun's Reports an Increase of 46 Per Cent in America in One Year.

New York, Sept. 30.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says:

"September is the twelfth consecutive month in which the volume of business, both at New York and outside, has been greater than in the same month of any previous year. In these twelve months payments through the clearing houses have been $89,600,000,000, against $61,200,000,000 in the twelve months ended with September, 1892. The demand still grows, now ranging about 60 per cent greater than in 1892, while population, according to treasury estimates, is 16 per cent greater and wages are not over 10 per cent greater. A reconstruction of business and industries, of producing and transporting forces, is in progress throughout the land, with results which none can now measure."

LARGE FIRE IN CINCINNATI.

Big Four Warehouse and Other Railroad Property Burned.

Cincinnati, Sept. 30.—At 1:10 a. m. fire was discovered in the Big Four warehouse, occupying a block bounded by Central avenue, Pearl, Plum and Second streets. The fire rapidly spread to other railway buildings, including the freight sheds, where forty loaded freight cars were burned and thirty that were not loaded. Some passenger coaches were also badly damaged in the yards.

The new passenger station was so badly damaged that no morning trains could leave that place.

The loss is estimated at over a million dollars, but it will be some time before the extent of the loss in the sheds and yards can be known accurately.

French Army Officer Charged With Barbarous Murder.

Here is a picture of Captain Voulet, the French army officer who is at present an outlaw in the Sudan and whose little band of murderers is being hunted down like so many wild beasts.

Captain Voulet was an officer who had gained some distinction in the French Sudan when he was sent with Captain Chanoine on a special mission into the interior. This was last January. Early in the spring the French war department heard news of barbarous acts of cruelty committed by these captains. An expedition was sent out to call them back.

Lieutenant Colonel Klobb and a lieutenant, sent to relieve the accused men, were shot down by the culprits, who then escaped into the wilderness. A large column has been sent to search for them.

The crimes charged to these officers are almost inconceivable. They began their work of barbarity by beheading a native who declared he did not know a road about which he was being questioned. Subsequently, it is declared, Voulet captured 80 natives, of whom he killed 20 of the women and children, shot a soldier for wasting ammunition and burned a village of 10,000 inhabitants.

Chanoine, it is added, shot two of his men without trial for not pursuing a native who had wounded a soldier. He also burned a village and, having lost six men in an engagement, rushed a village and captured 20 of the inhabitants, of which number he killed 10, placing their heads on poles.

Not So Remarkable.

"She says her husband is awfully obliging. He'll eat almost anything that's set before him."

"Dear me, she couldn't expect him to eat it if 'twas set behind him, could she?"—Philadelphia Bulletin.

How Words Change Meanings.

Acre once meant a field of any size. The Germans still use the word in this sense. God's acre, meaning a cemetery, is an instance of the old meaning. Libel once had no reference to anything offensive, but simply meant a small book or pamphlet. But pamphlet wars, which often were nothing but printed billingsgate, changed its meaning. Jeremy Taylor refers to the "beautiful imps that sang hosannas in the temple." Imp once meant a little child, and not a child of the devil, as it does now. Preface was formerly the word of welcome to a meal. Voyages were formerly made over land as well as water. Meat was applied to any kind of food, while to starve originally meant to work one's self to death—a significant footnote to the history of peasant risings in the early days.

Straw Horseshoes.

In Japan most of the horses are shod with straw. Even the clumsiest of cart horses wear straw shoes, which, in their cases, are tied around the ankle with straw rope, and are made of the ordinary rice straw, braided so as to form a sole for the foot about half an inch thick.

Sugarless Apple Jelly.

These directions for making a firm apple jelly without the use of sugar come from the Oregon experiment station:

Select thoroughly ripe apples, crush and obtain the juice in the same manner as for making cider. Strain and place the juice in a granite kettle and boil slowly, but continuously, until the juice becomes thick enough to jelly when cool. If the juice is boiled too hard, it will not jelly. It should be boiled very slowly. Remove any scum that may arise on the top while boiling. To determine its jellying qualities, place a small quantity in a shallow dish or saucer to cool. When finished cooking, fill the jelly glasses or molds with the liquor and allow it to stand until cold, when it should set firmly, making a stiff jelly without the use of sugar other than that contained in the fruit. To prevent the jelly from molding, melt a quantity of paraffin wax and, while hot, pour a quantity over the top of the jelly in each glass, making sure that the paraffin extends to and adheres to the sides of the glass. One gallon of apple juice will make eight glasses of fine, firm jelly.

Does Coffee Agree With You?

If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer, follow directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15c and 25c.

DISCOURAGED WOMEN

who desire to cure themselves at home can have the benefit of the advice of a regular practicing physician and specialist, without cost, by writing to Geo. C. Tallerday, M. D., 421 South State St., Belvidere, Ills. Dr. Tallerday has written in plain language, a little book for maids, wives and mothers, which he sends free in plain envelope.

Dr. Tallerday's Female Tonic

which can be obtained of all druggists at $1.00 a bottle is a medicine which removes the cause of all female complaints, strengthening the different organs and restoring them to their natural healthy functions. It not only cures displacements, inflammation, leucorrhœa, suppressed, profuse and painful menstruation, and has such a splendid general tonic effect that, taken for some time before confinement, it makes childbirth easy. It is a great aid to nursing mothers and removes the many sufferings of change of life. Taken as a Spring medicine it will give renewed strength and appetite and take away that terrible feeling of weight and lassitude. Mrs. Thursa Binder of 132 Wicker Park, Chicago, Ills., writes to Dr. Tallerday: "Your Female Tonic has done more good for me and my daughter than any remedy we have ever tried. Women who will try it cannot help but receive benefit."

PARLIAMENT IS SUMMONED.

British Cabinet Shirks Responsibility for War.

Johannesburg on a freely elected basis.

3. The separation of the judicature from the executive and its independence of the volksraad.

4. The abolition of the dynamite monopoly.

5. The removal of the fort dominating Johannesburg, though the defenses at Pretoria may remain.

6. The teaching of the English language in the schools.

It is said from Boer sources that Mr. Chamberlain's proposals submitted to the cabinet include: An indemnity for the cost of sending out troops, the disarmament of the Transvaal forts, the suppression of Dr. Leyds' legation, judicative and legislative independence for the judges, the equality of the English language and full and complete admission of the supremacy of British interests throughout South Africa.

London, Sept. 30.—The correspondent of the Morning Post at Johannesburg sends the following: "A government official, who has just returned from Pretoria, where he saw President Kruger, assures me that martial law will be proclaimed Saturday or Monday."

Durban, Natal, Sept. 30.—The summoning of the volunteers has caused widespread excitement. The men responded readily and 800 troops, with numerous guns, will entrain today.

Boers May Get Aid in Russia.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 30.—Discussing the attitude of Germany in regard to the Transvaal crisis, the Rossia says: "It is still an open question as to whether Russian diplomacy, on the basis of The Hague conference, may not make the experiment of recommending that Great Britain and the Transvaal have recourse to a court of arbitration. In view of the hostile feeling against Great Britain, it is very possible that numerous volunteers from Europe will go to the aid of the Boers, as Russian volunteers aided Servia. If Great Britain attempts to prevent such a movement, Russia, perhaps, will speak a decisive word."

Retrospect.

If I could go back to the forks of the road,
Over all the long miles I have carried life's load,
Again to decide which looked smoothest and best—
I wouldn't take either—I'd knock off the rest.
